AROUND THE BOARD

**

- President, David Cervelli: The board is scheduled to meet on April 18th, here at the Junkyard. Reminder to mark your calendar for the October 3rd "Day in The Park" – 55th Anniversary picnic. Still need more sub committee members. December 19th Holiday Party at Tierra Rejada Country Club in Moorpark. The Holiday party event needs a chairperson and small committee.
- Vice President, Jim Steadman:
- Secretary, Sheri Dixon: Emailed out the minutes. Correction was made to the minutes. Kurt Statts made a motion to approve the minutes as corrected. Bruce Fine seconds the motion. The motion passed.
- Treasurer, Gina Moore: Not present but sent a treasurer's report. Balance in our account is good. Deposit for the picnic has been paid.
- Membership, Jerry Miller: We have a new member, Bruce, not present today. Met Bruce at cars and coffee. Bruce has a 66 Corvette in Silver. New roster was sent out
- Event Director, Todd Andrew: Poppy run was supposed to be happening but with the rain no one wanted to go. Todd did bring maps of the route if anyone changed their mind. May 2, Wildlife learning center in Sylmar. This is a wildlife recue center.
- Merchandise Director, Melissa Cervelli: Trying to sell old merchandise in inventory. Melissa had 50th anniversary patches, for free. We are taking orders for the new 55th anniversary shirts. Also collecting money for your presale t-shirt order. We want to get the order in soon. Two members wanted a t-shirt with a pocket. Melissa will see if that can be done.
- Webmaster/Feature Article, Paul Pollock: David announced that changes to our website are in progress.

- Museum Ambassador, Clyde Shaffer: The museum is under going a major expansion. 60,000 square foot building for maintenances and storage of the collections is in progress.
- Historian, Laurie Ferrari: Still dealing with all the pictures she has, but not sure how to upload yet.
- Sergeant at Arms, Kurt Statts: Will bring radios to our next outing.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, COMMENTS AND STORIES

David Cervelli announced the Westlake Promenade car show is the second Saturday of every month.

Loretta L'Oddo brought 2 Club jackets for anyone who wants one. Size large and size extra large. Kurt Statts took the large one. Loretta also brought several coffee table size, hard cover books for donation.

Melissa Cervelli directed everyone's attention to the side table that had leftover inventory on it, for sale. T-shirts and hats.

David introduced Brian Kadorian. Brian found us on Facebook and wanted to come and introduce himself and gave a 5-minute sales talk. Formally called Hagerty Car Insurance company is now called Collector Car Insurance. Hagerty Ins. wanted to open their business up to more foreign cars, not just domestic like our Corvettes. Brain explained that his company understands that our collector cars are meant to be driven. Their car insurance policy has a "miles rated band". One of the tools he has on his website is an evaluation tool, to assist owner who may want to see the value of their cars.

Loretta has a 1965 corvette and a 2019 corvette that she is interested in selling. Brian will reach out to her to assist with an evaluation. Brian brought free sunglasses for everyone in attendance.

David asked Loretta to send him more detailed information on her two Corvettes. David will post the information on our website.

Raffle: $120.00 (Loretta will take the raffle money and merchandise money to Gina) Mike Dixon ran the raffle
 No dinner drawing today.
 Name Badge winner was not present. (Next month it goes up to $55.00)
 Jerry will update the name badge tickets for the drawing.
