- President, Kurt Statts: Handed out annual awards.
- Vice President, Jim Steadman:
- Secretary, Sheri Dixon:
- Treasurer, Loretta L'Oddo: Collected more money for the holiday party. We still have some final bills to pay for the holiday party. We can still accept more people for the party. Final treasurer's report for Loretta. Everyone applauded.
- Membership, Jerry Miller: Update on members health. Welcomed Melissa back to the meetings. New roster was emailed to all members.
- Event Director, David Cervelli: Today's event is a nice ride led by Kurt. First stop will be Kurt and Lisa's house for light appetizers. Please bring something easy to share or drinks. Second and final stop will be Charlie and Vicki's house, around dark. We will enjoy dessert, coffee and wine. We will have a cookie exchange; games and an easy walk through their neighborhood of beautiful light displays. Please bring a dozen cookies for the exchange. We have switched over our email accounts to Google from Gaggle. Hopefully everyone has received several emails from our new Google account. Todd Andrew will be the new event coordinator starting in January. Todd has planned an event heading towards Ventura marina for dinner at the Greek restaurant. More information to come. February will be at Ray Scher's. The new board will meet in January and will build the calendar for next year.
- Product Director, Nanci Braunschweiger: We are at about 35 RSVP's for the holiday party. The deadline passed but we can still accept a few more.

- Webmaster & Feature Article, Paul Pollock: New article will be out soon. Working on updating the website. Big project for next year.
- Museum Ambassador, Clyde Shaffer: Ron's brick is in progress. Tours are still available at the museum.
- Historian, Vicki Ryia:
- Sergeant at Arms, Chris Roth:

COMMENTS AND STORIES

Annual awards:

First group of awards are for longevity: corvette key chains are awarded. Awards are in 5-year increments.

10 years of membership went to Paul and Frances Pollock

30 years – Vince and Loretta O'ddo

We have two Z06 awards (Kurt came up with this special name) when a member has been in the club for a very long time but may have dropped out and then started up again. Awarded was Jack Alsobrook for 44 years of total membership. Jack joined in 1981. Also, Lenny Goodwin, who joined in 1988, has 37 years of membership.

The VCSC Presidents Award was awarded to Jerry Miller

The VCSC Member of the Year award was awarded to David Cervelli

Raffle:

Name badge: $30.00 not present
